

Teacher – Health Sciences

(up to 0.4 FTE)

Context

INTO establishes long-term joint ventures with some of the UK's leading universities in a unique initiative that improves their competitive position in international markets. INTO Centres deliver pathway courses for international students that lead to undergraduate and postgraduate study. INTO invests in modern teaching and accommodation facilities and has an established global network that recruits students from many cultures. Each Centre is managed by a joint venture management board on which INTO and the partner university are equal shareholders.

Requirements

We wish to recruit a Health Science teacher for our International Foundation Programme in Pharmacy, Health and Life Sciences.

You should ideally possess:

- the ability to teach students on the Preparation for Health and Life Sciences module. This module aims to prepare international students to successfully progress onto undergraduate health and life science courses, particularly pharmacy, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, nursing, SLT, midwifery, medicine and life sciences.
- a background in a health profession or relevant subject area;
- skills and experience to effectively teach students from a variety of countries and cultural backgrounds, with different language levels;
- skills and experience in coaching students in developing confidence, interpersonal skills and reflective practice;
- experience in facilitating and leading discussion of potentially sensitive topics and issues;
- skills and experience in supporting students in preparing for interviews and university applications;
- a relevant teaching qualification and/or teaching experience.

Please refer to the job description for this post for further details on the necessary skills and experience required.

Salary

Salary band £27,838 TO £37,665 pro rata per annum, depending on skills, qualifications and experience.

Application Process

If you feel you have the necessary skills, experience and interest for this post, please download the application form from our website <http://into-corporate.com/jobs> and return with a covering letter stating why you are interested in working for INTO University of East Anglia, to: intouea.recruitment@intoglobal.com

For further details, a full job description and a copy of our Candidate Privacy Notice see <https://intoglobal.com/jobs>

Safeguarding

As part of our Safeguarding procedures, applicants are asked to note that:

- references will be followed up;
- all gaps in CVs must be explained satisfactorily;
- proof of identity and (where applicable) qualifications will be required;
- reference requests will ask specifically whether there is any reason that they should not be engaged in situations where they have responsibility for, or substantial access to, persons under 18;
- appropriate suitability checks will be required prior to confirmation of appointment.

This role meets the requirements in respect of exempted questions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. All applicants who are offered employment will be subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service check before the appointment is confirmed. This will include details of cautions, reprimands or final warnings as well as convictions.

For further details, a full job description and a copy of our Candidate Privacy Notice see <https://intoglobal.com/jobs>

INTO is an equal opportunities employer.

INTO is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people, and child protection screening will apply.

www.into.uk.com

INTO Giving is the charitable arm of INTO University Partnerships and is committed to increasing access to education and improving the quality of education for disadvantaged young people around the world. INTO employees are encouraged to take an active role in INTO Giving.

To find out more please visit www.into-giving.com.